Note: These are instructions for PowerPoint 2010 for Windows. Saving as a video DOES NOT work on PowerPoint for Mac 2011.

I. Start The Recording

II. Show Time!

Recording [X]

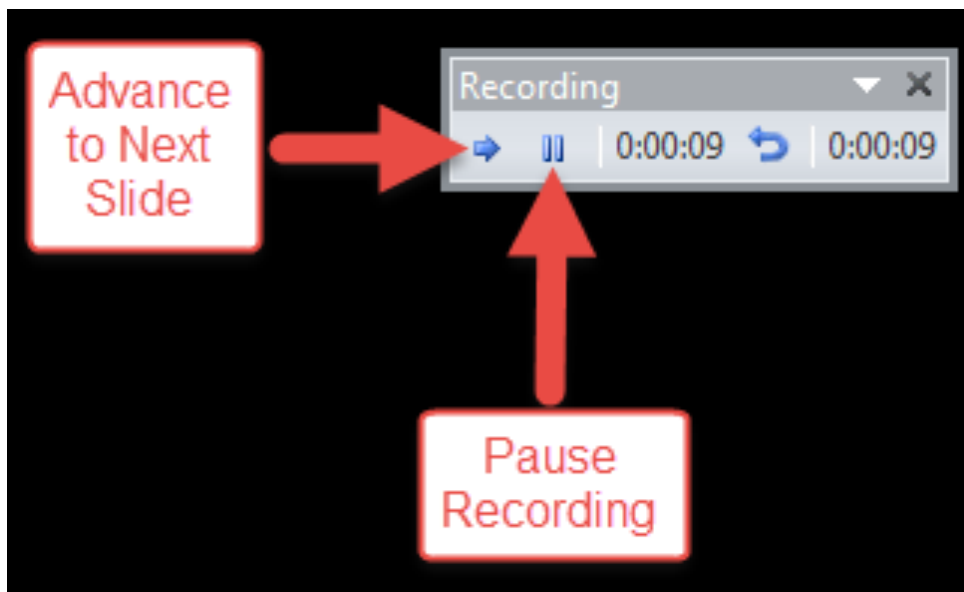

▶ || 0:00:10 ↺ | 0:00:10

You are now recording (audio & slide timing).

Earth Systems

Part I

The image shows a presentation slide with a recording interface at the top. The recording toolbar includes a play button, a pause button, a timer showing 0:00:10, a refresh button, and another timer showing 0:00:10. A blue callout bubble points to the recording controls with the text 'You are now recording (audio & slide timing)'. The slide content features the title 'Earth Systems' in a large font and 'Part I' in a smaller font below it.

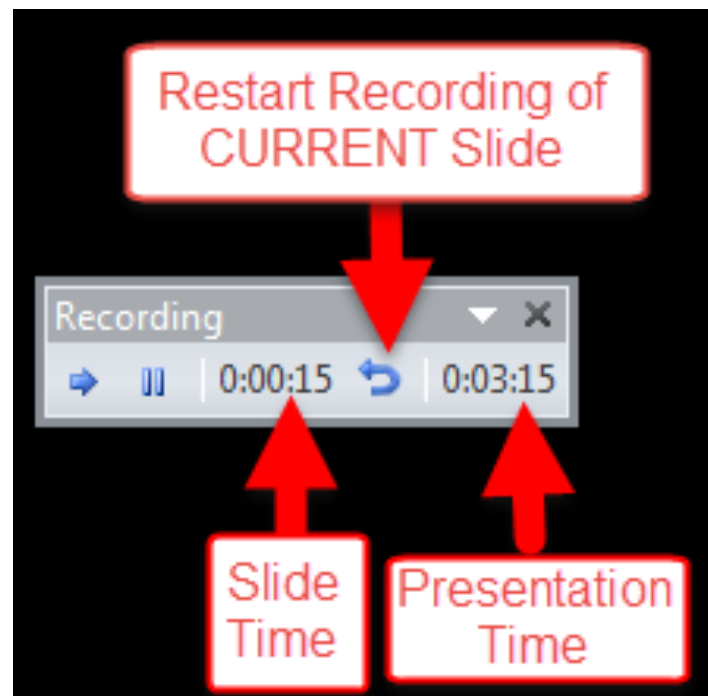

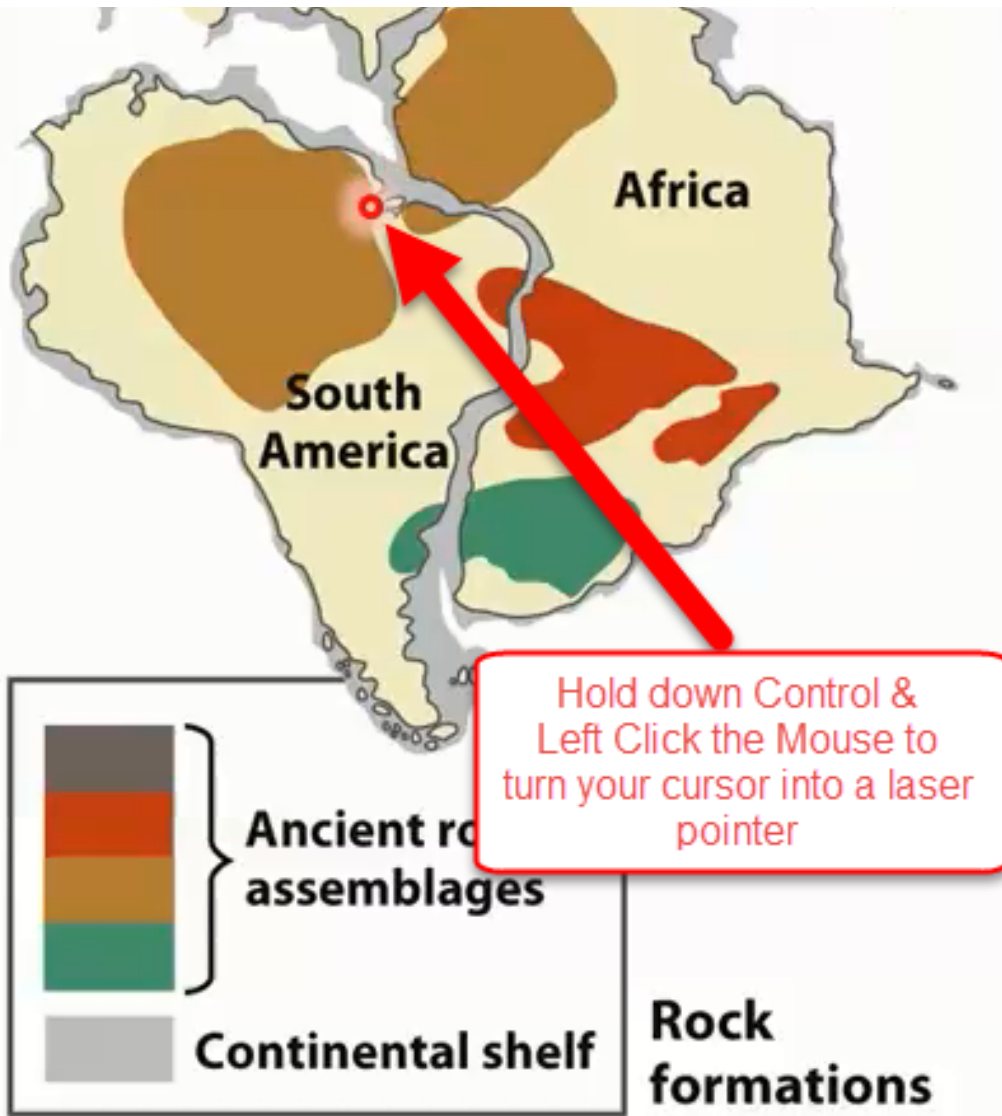

Advance to Next Slide

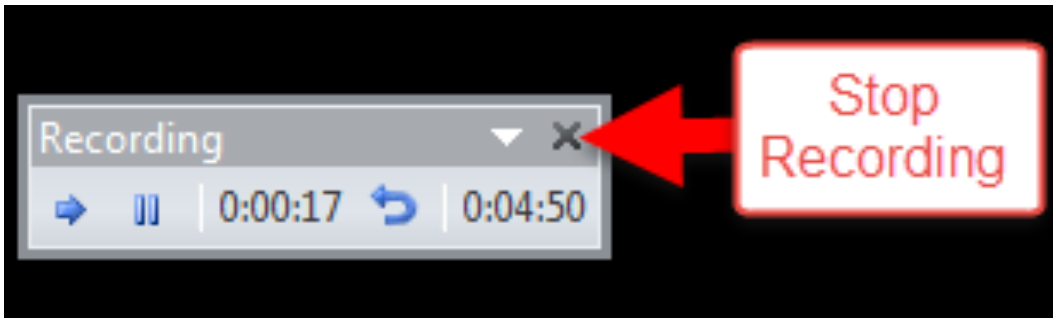

Recording [X]

▶ || 0:00:09 ↺ | 0:00:09

Pause Recording

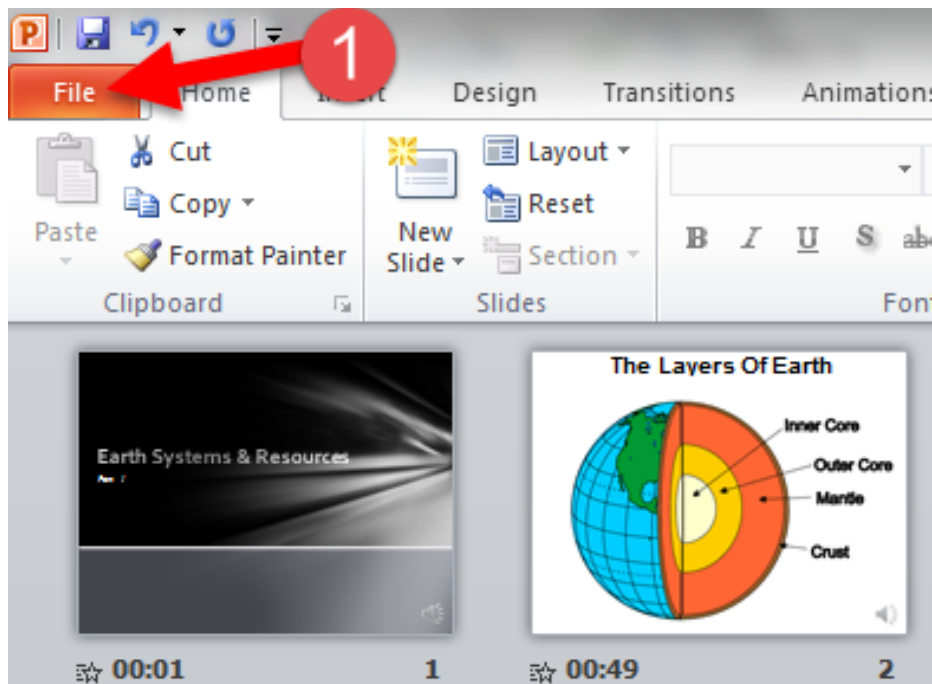

The image shows a close-up of the recording interface with two red callout boxes. One box labeled 'Advance to Next Slide' has an arrow pointing to the right arrow icon in the recording toolbar. The other box labeled 'Pause Recording' has an arrow pointing to the pause icon in the recording toolbar. The recording toolbar shows a timer at 0:00:09 and a refresh button.

Save your PowerPoint
